EVENT DETAILS

Central & South America Consumer Oriented Outbound Trade Mission

WUSATA is organizing a category-specific trade mission to Bogotá, Colombia, designed to facilitate meaningful connections between participating companies and key buyers from across Latin America.

This mission will bring together buyers from Colombia, Chile, Panama, Argentina, and Peru, along with additional buyers from Costa Rica and Nicaragua, to create a robust platform for business development.

Participating WUSATA companies will have the opportunity to engage in strategic B2B meetings, gain valuable market insights through in-depth briefings, and explore firsthand the local business environment through curated site visits. This initiative aims to strengthen trade relationships, expand market access, and enhance export opportunities for U.S. agricultural and food companies in the dynamic Latin American marketplace.

Why Participate:

- Connect with pre-qualified buyers (retailers, consumer-oriented importers / distributors) representing South and Central America.
- Evaluate how your product fits into the marketplace and assess the competitive landscape by engaging with retail and wholesale buyers.
- Gather current market intelligence, consumer preference, and trend information directly from the source.
- Identify new buyers for your product, or re-connect personally with existing clients- Interpreters provided as needed

Benefits of Participation:

- Hotel lodging - 4 Nights in Bogota, Colombia
- Interpreters, if needed at the tabletop meetings
